BORN.
Mr. Samuel Peterson, the rustler at Grant, Ode & Co's wagon shop, is in a very serious condition, so he cannot be held responsible for what he does. He may be held to answer for the wagon or leave off the horse. The farmers, therefore, should be very careful and examine their wagons.
The reason of Mr. Peterson's precarious state is the birth of two lovely daughters to his wife on the 29th of July, 1891.

NOTICE TO WATER CONSUMERS.
THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS hereby called to an ordinance in relation to the waterworks, passed September 5, A. D. 1888, relative to the use of water for sprinkling purposes within the upper and lower sprinkling districts, described as follows, to-wit:

All that portion of the city lying east and north of the following boundaries is hereby made and declared to be the upper sprinkling district, to-wit: Commencing at the intersection of First West and Seventh North streets, and running thence along said First West street to Second North street, thence along said Second North street to Apple street, thence along Apple street to First North street, thence east along First North street to East Temple street, thence south to East Bench street, thence east along East Bench street to First East street, thence south along First East street to South Temple street, thence east along South Temple street to Sixth East street, thence south along Sixth East street to Liberty street, and thence along Liberty street to the main on South Temple street east of First East street, and it is taken from the main on First East street, shall be deemed to belong to said upper district.

The portion of the city lying west and south of the foregoing boundaries is hereby made and declared to be the lower sprinkling district, to-wit:

Sprinklers for lawns, sidewalks, streets, windows and fronts in the upper district must be used only between the hours of 8 a. m. and 4 p. m.; and in the lower district between the hours of 8 a. m. and 9 o'clock p. m. during the months of July, August, September and October of each year. Thirty minutes each day shall be allowed for the sprinkling of each 100 square yards of lawn in the upper district, and twenty minutes each day for the same area in the lower district.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be fined not less than $10, nor exceeding $10 for the first offense, and not exceeding $20 for each subsequent offense. A strict enforcement of this ordinance will henceforth be observed. By order of the Mayor, J. F. JACK, City Recorder.
